'Well first I will say, then," began Imogene. 'Just as I quit the boss and his writing machine. I want you, Joe, to leave that detestable hod. And go back to the farm and to turning the sod.

'Why should you, Joe, be always a-lifting up hods? And why not, Joe, go back to the hopping of clods? Just give back that old hod to the Man-At-The-Top.

And let Green take it up-or else let the work stop?" And so Joe left the town-for the country he hied. Left the Man-At-Top-with his hod cast aside Just like his dear wife, the bright-eyed Imogene. Left the bald-headed boss and the writing machine.

So he took up the shovel, the rake and the hoe: Used the ax and the pitch-fork, the spade and the froe: Went to sowing and reaping; to steering the plow; To driving the mules and to milking the cow.

So the two were now happy; his wife, Imogene-She became an expert on the sewing machine-Had her Leghorns and Bramas and fine Plymouth Rock. And would let Joe keep none but the finest of stock.

So a year passed away and then came little Danizens do not want the bell taken He was named of course after the Bald-Headed Man-To enliven their home and to add to their joysnot be sold to anyone who would (His weight was just nine pounds avoirdupois!)

And a bright, lovely babe was this same little Dan-He in no wise resembled the Bald Headed Man-"I think, don't you, mamma," said Joe. "can't you see That his ears and his nose look exactly like me?"

"Say, Green-ha! ha! ha!" laughed the Bald-Headed Man, "The problem is solved! I've just formed a new plan! Since you, Green-ha! ha!-failed to get Imogene, I'll just give little Dan that new writing machine!"

Little restraint is put on the milder forms of these contagious diseases and even sometimes they are unrecognized until the whole community is exposed; in such cases are the secretions from the mouth and nose. We know we can do much to prevent contagion by enforcing habits of cleanliness: but if such measures are to be effective we must keep everlastregly at it. The parents and chers must notice and correct riolations of these rules as habitually as if the childs life depended on their enforcement, and many times life depends upon the enforc ement of very simple rules. is at home but how long would day because of her aid. it take a woman to go to the polls, cast her vote and return to the bosom of her family. Mrs. Adams holds that the right of suffrage is necessary in order for the house wife to perform her duties correctly. Our opponent may say that a woman should stay at home in her place. But it certainly is her duty to see that her country grows wiser and better and if she is interested in her country, as most every woman is, why not give her the right for which she is fighting.

If women want the right of suffrage what right has man to object? It only shows the spirit of determination to make the country better on the woman's part. Men say that women are trying to take their places, but this is a false statement, she only wants rights equal to him, and this untrue statement is depriving woman of the right justly due her.

We ask this question, why should women not have the right to vote? Are they not on an equal with man, do they not have to obey the laws same as man? Then why should they not help make them? But our opponent may say that mother's place is at home, taking care of her children. But let me ask this question, how is a mother to train her children in political life when she knows nothing of it and will not as long as she is denied the right of suffrage.

Another question concerning this subject, is, if women vote they should pay taxes, sure if women were given the right to vote she would not mind to pay taxes and what is a few taxes to pay when you have the liberty to cast your vote for whom you desire to run your country's affairs. All widows that own property are compelled to pay taxes, and the majority of women are widows, (and a great many that are not might as well be.) They could find it easy the women are deprived of the right to vote it is on the same Representation. Our civil government tells us that a man cannot have any interest in his country and is not a good citizen the women of today want and need to be good citizens?

Women can do effective work in hospital work, in homes for work and all those concessionary and palliative measures in munications to which they find their sympathies much more readily enlisted

That women should have the than in the brute-force of legislaright of suffrage, is a question tion, in all these things women that should be more widely have rendered in valuable serthought of and talked about in vice to their country in more ex-

But some may argue that the dumb, a drunkard and illiterate voting of woman would only be white man or negro who can't a waste of time, for they would even write their names can you vote as their husband or father not trust your mothers, sisters do, but we say this isn't true in and wives with the right for every case; for instance, do you which they are fighting and believe if a woman's husband should have. So for the good of or father were to vote saloons, she would ask their consent and do likewise? No, almost every woman no matter what her mind DR. BELL'S ANTI-PAIN and manners, is bitterly opposed to the liquor traffic, she hates the saloons and fears its menace to her home and men folk.

A man's only excuse for not wanting a woman to vote is, it isn't a woman's place to have anything to do with laws and election of officers, for her place is within the walls of her home tending to her home duties If men were as willing and ready to say, "It isn't a woman's place to take in washing and hire out in order that they may pay the grocery bills and support the family," my, how nice things would be at home and how well he will perform the duty that he swears before man and God he will do. Our opponents may say that a woman would be compelled to lose all the modesty and refinement she possessed because of having to mix and mingle with different classes of people at the polling place. But anyone knows that a woman isn't compelled to mix and mingle with different classes of people at the polling place any more than she would at any other public gathering. But even if she does it won't hurt her. If she ever had any modesty or refinement before, what little time she is at the polls will not compel her to lose it, and in place of the woman's presence at the polls being a downfall to her and the people it will cause the men to be more civil and because of her presence at the polls cause them to keep down rudeness. But some say women would always be quarrelling over politics. It has been found in countries where women vote that there is no more quarrelling It is very easy to see why the over politics by husbands and men object to woman suffrage, wives, brothers and sisters than they know if women had the there is over baseball, ball games ballot the saloons, gambling and the latest fashions. SUSPECT FOUND DEAD

Goebel Killing, Said to Have Been Assassinated.

Morgantown, Ky., July 24.-Harlan Whittaker, whose name became known throughout the that the above statement is true to the State by reason of his arrest in connection with the murder of Senator William Goebel, was found dead in a thicket on his farm near this place. Death is said to have been caused by heart trouble. A Coroners jury passed upon the case and returned a verdict of death from natural causes, although rumors were heard that he had been assassinated.

Whittaker was found by his the tape worm. It destroys health wife after a search of several hours.
